

ADVANCING SCIENCE. SERVING SOCIETY

http://www.aaas.org/images/main_logo.gif

Attention ISC Member: AAAS Annual Meeting Coming to Chicago

Many Chicago area institutions are taking part in the 2009 AAAS Annual Meeting, from scientific lectures and exhibits to demonstrations at Family Science Days. The spotlight is on Chicago, you, and your colleagues.

The interactive AAAS Annual Meeting Program is live. To learn about individual speakers and the breadth of topics, take a tour of our Program Planner and build your own itinerary at www.aaas.org/meetings. See instructions below.

The Winter Meeting of the American Association of Physics Teachers will be held in conjunction with AAAS Annual Meeting in Chicago. A program of activities of interest to both associations will be available soon.

Special Offer

Any ISC member who registers for the Annual Meeting between Friday, 19 December, and Thursday, January 1, will be registered automatically at the discounted AAAS member rate. Sign up at:

<http://registration.experient-inc.com/ShowAAA091/Default.aspx>

Select “Member Registration” and under Member Number, insert the ISC Code: 12345678. For last name, insert the word, Chicago. This will take you to the Profile page where you can enter your personal information and continue with registration.

Make plans now to participate in this important scientific meeting of researchers, scientists, policy-makers, and educators from around the globe.

Get program details at

<http://www.aaas.org/meetings>

Instructions: Go to www.aaas.org/meetings. In the left navigation column, select “Program Planner” and then “Advanced Search.” Browse by “Session Track” and display as “Presentations” or “Sessions” (see buttons at the bottom of the Advanced Search page).